Petition for Injunction Against Workplace Harassment

Read the description below to determine whether an Injunction Against Workplace Harassment suits your needs. If you need assistance, staff members are available to help get you started.

Injunctions Against Workplace Harassment. ARS 12-1810(R)(2):

"Harassment" means a single threat or act of physical harm or damage or a series of acts over any period of time that would cause a reasonable person to be seriously alarmed or annoyed.

An employer or an authorized agent of an employer may file a written verified petition with a magistrate, justice of the peace or superior court judge for an injunction prohibiting workplace harassment.

The court shall not grant an injunction against workplace harassment against either:

1. A person who is under twelve years of age unless the injunction is granted by the juvenile division of the superior court.
2. More than one defendant.

The petition shall state all of the following:

1. The name of the employer.
2. The name and address, if known, of the defendant.
3. A specific statement showing the events and dates of the acts that constitute harassment toward the employer or any person who enters the employer's property or who is performing official work duties.

If the court grants an injunction against workplace harassment, the court may do any of the following:

1. Restrain the defendant from coming near the employer's property or place of business and restrain the defendant from contacting the employer, or other person while that person is on or at the employer's property or place of business or is performing official work duties.
2. Grant any other relief necessary for the protection of the employer, the workplace, the employer's employees or any other person who is on or at the employer's property or place of business or who is performing official work duties.
