INFORMATION FOR FILING SMALL CLAIMS CASES IN JUSTICE COURT

This is your case. You have a responsibility to yourself and to the court to acquire a sufficient knowledge to complete the forms properly and to follow your lawsuit to conclusion. There are certain steps you must follow to pursue it properly. This information is provided to assist you in general procedure. You may also want to refer to the Arizona Revised Statutes (ARS), Arizona Rules of Court (ARCP), Justice Courts Rules of Civil Procedure (JCRCP), and Arizona Rules of Small Claims (ARSCP) for additional information. The statutes may be viewed online at <http://www.azleg.state.az.us/ArizonaRevisedStatutes.asp> or may be found at your local library.

CLERK DUTY The clerks in the justice court are not attorneys and cannot give legal advice. The clerks' responsibility is to take your court filing and to provide forms and explain court procedures. It is not the clerks' responsibility to advise you if you have a legal claim. The clerk is not responsible for any error you may make in asserting or defending the claim. ARS 22-507

COURT FEES

Fees are payable at the time of the filing. Refer to the Court's posted schedule of fees. ARS 22-281, 22-522

JURISDICTIONAL LIMIT The plaintiff may file for any amount not to exceed $3,500.00. A larger claim may be reduced to $3,500.00 and any remaining amount waived. A claim may NOT be split by filing two separate actions. The plaintiff may ask for reimbursement of court costs in addition to the $3,500.00 maximum. Court costs include, but are not limited to filing and service fees. A prevailing defendant may also ask for reimbursement of court costs. ARS 22-503A, ARSCP 1(a)

YOU MAY NOT FILE IN SMALL CLAIMS IF:

The case involves a claim of defamation by libel or slander. The case is for forcible entry, eviction action or unlawful detainer. The case involves a claim for specific performance. The case is brought or defended on behalf of a class. The case requests relief by or involves prejudgment remedies. The case is seeking injunctive relief. The case involves traffic violations or criminal matters. The case is against this State, its political subdivisions or is against its officers or employees, acting in an official capacity. ARS 22-503B

VENUE means the proper geographical area (precinct) in which a lawsuit may be filed. You must file the lawsuit where the defendant resides or does business or where the cause of the lawsuit occurred. ARS 12-401, ARSCP 4

MOTION TO CHANGE VENUE A motion for change of venue is one of only two motions allowed in a small claims action. A motion for change of venue for improper venue must be filed prior to filing the answer, or venue is waived. If a motion is filed alleging that the lawsuit is filed in the wrong precinct and the court orders a change of venue, the case will be transferred to the proper precinct. If you oppose a motion for change of venue you must file an objection in writing within ten days after service of the motion. ARS 12-404A Venue may be proper in more than one precinct, however if, after hearing, the original venue is found to be wrong additional fees may be assessed to the plaintiff. ARS 12-407, ARSCP Rule 10

TRANSFER TO REGULAR CIVIL DIVISION OF JUSTICE COURT Either party may transfer a small claims case to the court's civil division up to 10 business days before hearing. The party requesting the transfer will be assessed filing fees. ARS 22-504A, ARSCP 11

ATTORNEYS An attorney cannot appear or represent either party in the Small Claims division unless:

- ~ He/she is representing himself or herself.
- ~ Both parties agree to the use of attorneys and file a Small Claims Agreement to Use of Attorneys, a form the court can provide. An agreement to use attorneys must be filed at least 24 hours before the scheduled court date. However, any party has the right to choose to be represented by counsel and may file a request to transfer the case to the Civil Division of the Justice Court for that purpose. The case will then be transferred to the Civil Division and appropriate fees charged to the party requesting the transfer.

After entry of judgment, the prevailing party has a right to employ an attorney to pursue available rights and remedies for the purpose of collecting the judgment award. ARS 22-512 B,C,D,E, ARSCP 1(c)

PARTIES The Arizona Rules of Small Claims Procedures (ARSCP) and Arizona Revised Statutes govern small claims procedures and set forth who may file a small claims action or appear or represent on behalf of such an action. ARS 22-512A, B, ARSCP 2(a)

The plaintiff must be the original owner of a claim and may not sue on an assigned claim. However, after judgment a party may make an assignment of the judgment. ARS 22-512B, ARSCP 2(a)(1)

- w An individual shall represent himself. Either spouse or both may represent a marital community.
- w An active general partner or an authorized full-time employee shall represent a partnership.
- w A full-time officer or authorized employee shall represent a corporation.
- w An active member or an authorized full-time employee shall represent an association.
- w Any other organization or entity shall be represented by one of its active members or authorized full-time employees.
- w If you are representing a partnership, an association, corporation or any other organization, please provide the court with a notice stating your position and your authority to represent an action on behalf of the partnership, association, corporation or organization.
- w If you are a full time employee representing a corporation please provide the court with a letter signed by a corporate officer stating your position and authority to represent the corporation.
- w However, any party has the right to choose to be represented by counsel and may file a request to transfer to the Civil Division or both parties may stipulate to allow the use of attorneys.

COMPLAINT is a brief statement of the plaintiff's reasons for filing the claim against the defendant and should contain proper venue, proper jurisdictional limit, and a statement of relief sought.

Amended complaints are not allowed in Small Claims. ARSCP 4(c)

YOU HAVE 45 DAYS TO FILE PROOF OF SERVICE OF THE COMPLAINT, SUMMONS, AND NOTICE OR YOUR CASE IS SUBJECT TO DISMISSAL ARSCP 5(a)

METHODS OF SERVICE The plaintiff may serve the Complaint, Summons, and Notice by certified mail with a return receipt. The court may require service by certified mail be restricted. Service is deemed complete upon the return receipt with the court.

Each named defendant must be served a copy of the COMPLAINT, SUMMONS, and NOTICE. Restricted delivery is preferred to ensure the defendant is served.

If the postal service does not enter a date of delivery or the date is not legible, service is deemed complete on the date the return receipt is filed with the court. The plaintiff must file the return receipt (the green card) with the court in person or by first class mail.

If the defendant cannot be served by registered or certified mail, personal service by a licensed process server may be used.

If you need more time to serve, you may transfer the case to the courts Civil Division.

If the claim is against a corporation, the statutory agent, or an officer of the corporation must be served on behalf of the corporation named in the complaint. You may obtain the name and address of a statutory agent or corporate officer by calling the Arizona Corporation Commission 602-542-3026 or 1-800-345-5819.

IT IS IMPORTANT THAT ALL PARTIES KEEP THE COURT UPDATED OF ANY CHANGE IN CONTACT INFORMATION. A CONTACT INFORMATION UPDATE form is available at the court and must be filed with the court when a party changes their address.

APPLICATION FOR ENTRY OF DEFAULT If the defendant does not file an answer to the complaint within 20 calendar days after service is complete, the plaintiff may file an Application for Entry of Default against the defendant. If a counterclaim has been filed and the plaintiff fails to file a reply to the counterclaim within the time allowed, the counter-claimant (defendant) may file an Application for Entry of Default against the counter-defendant (plaintiff) on the counterclaim. The party seeking the default must mail a copy of the Application for Entry of Default form to the defaulting party. JCRCP 140

REQUEST AND AFFIDAVIT FOR ENTRY DEFAULT If the party claimed to be in default fails to file an answer or pleading or otherwise defend the lawsuit within 10 judicial days of the filing of the Application for Entry of Default, the party may then file the Request and Affidavit for Entry of Default and a completed proposed Judgment form. JCRCP 140

DISMISSAL The plaintiff may dismiss the claim at any time prior to the defendant filing an answer or other pleading. Once the defendant has filed an answer both parties must stipulate to a dismissal (agree in writing). The court may dismiss a case that is not concluded within 65 days from the service of the complaint ARSCP 5(c), 17(a)(b)

FILING AN ANSWER The defendant has 20 calendar days to file an answer to the complaint with the court and pay the answer fee. The answer should respond to each allegation of the complaint. The case will then be set for a hearing. Failure to file an answer may result in a default judgment. An application for waiver/deferral may be filed if applicable. ARS 22-514, ARSCP 7

FILING A COUNTERCLAIM A counterclaim is a claim made by the defendant against the plaintiff. A counterclaim may be filed at the same time the answer is filed or must be filed within 20 days of service of the summons. If the defendant files a counterclaim, the plaintiff has 20 calendar days to file a response. Amended counterclaims are not allowed. A default judgment may be entered against the plaintiff for failure to answer the counterclaim. If the defendant files a counterclaim and the amount claimed exceeds $3,500.00, the court will transfer the case to the Civil Division. ARS 22-517, ARSCP 9

MOTIONS Only two motions are allowed in the Small Claims Division: a Motion for Change of Venue (filed before an Answer) and a Motion to Vacate Judgment (filed after a judgment). ARS 22-505, ARSCP 10,16

HEARING OFFICERS Either a Justice of the Peace or an appointed Volunteer Hearing Officer may hear your case. Any party may object to the use of a hearing officer at least 15 calendar days prior to the hearing date in writing. The court can provide you with a form to make this objection. The case will then be referred to and heard by the Justice of the Peace. ARS 22-506, ARSCP 12(a)

SETTING FOR HEARING A hearing date will be set within 60 calendar days after the answer has been filed with the court. All parties will be notified of the date and time of the hearing. ARS 22-515A, ARSCP 8

REQUEST TO CONTINUE COURT DATE If for some reason you find that you are unable to appear for your hearing on the date and time scheduled, you may file a Request for Continuance with the court showing good cause why you are unable to appear. The Judge will consider the merits of your request and either grant or deny it. The request for continuance must be in writing and should be timely filed, at least 15 calendar days prior to the hearing date. ARS 22-515C, ARSCP 12(b)

THE HEARING You cannot have your Small Claims case heard before a jury.

Bring to the hearing anything necessary or relevant to establish or defend the claim or counterclaim. Examples: books, papers, bills, pictures of damages, or other exhibits. Both parties may also bring witnesses to testify on their behalf to substantiate your position. You will only be allowed a limited amount of time to present your claim or your defense. ARS 22-518, ARSCP 1(d)

If the case is settled before the scheduled hearing date, be sure to notify the court. A Stipulated Dismissal, Settlement, or Judgment must be filed. Within five calendar days after the decision, a copy of the Judgment or Order will be mailed/delivered to each party. ARSCP 15(b)

APPEAL Parties DO NOT have the right to appeal. The decision of the hearing officer or justice of the peace is final and binding on both parties. If you wish to preserve your right to appeal, you may have the case transferred to the Civil Division of the justice court. You may do this at any time up to 10 business days before hearing. ARS 22-519, ARSCP 11(a)

JUDGMENT AWARDED If you are awarded the Judgment, it is valid for 10 years from the date it is entered, if you choose to renew the Judgment, the renewal must be filed within 90 calendar days from the expiration. Refer to the court's handout Collecting a Money Judgment.

VACATE JUDGMENT A motion can be filed by either party to remove a Judgment and must be filed within six months from date of judgment. The Motion must be delivered on the other party. If you oppose a motion to vacate the judgment, file a response in writing 15 calendar days after receiving the motion. If the motion to vacate judgment is the defendant's first filing, the defendant must pay a filing fee. ARSCP 16

SATISFACTION OF JUDGMENT When the Judgment is paid in full, a Satisfaction of Judgment must be filed with the court. This form is available from the court. Visit us at justicecourts.maricopa.gov for additional filing information and online forms.

NOTICE TO ALL PARTIES

DEFAULT If the time to answer passes and the defendant fails to answer the complaint, or if the time to reply to a counterclaim passes and the plaintiff fails to reply to the counterclaim, you may get information and forms from the court for obtaining a default judgment. Default is a two-part process, you may obtain both sets of forms from the court.

VOLUNTARY DISMISSAL is required to be filed if the case is settled out of court prior to answer. If an answer has been filed in the case, you must file a STIPULATED DISMISSAL.

When an answer is filed the court will set a hearing date within 60 days of the filing of the answer and notify both parties of the time and date by mail. Bring all evidence, documents and witnesses you need to present your case or establish your defense.

The parties should resolve their case within 65 days from date of service. Otherwise, the court may dismiss the case. ARSCP 5(c).

CONTACT INFORMATION UPDATE All parties are responsible for informing the court of a current address to ensure that the party can receive all notices mailed from the court.

COLLECTING THE JUDGMENT AWARD If you are not able to make arrangements with the losing party to collect your judgment, you may seek a Writ of Execution, a Writ of Garnishment, or an Order for Supplemental Proceedings (debtor's examination). You may ask the court clerk for the necessary form. Please refer to your instructions.
