If you want to file a...

EVICITION ACTION (Complaint & Summons Tenant Eviction)

MARICOPA COUNTY JUSTICE COURTS

AN EVICTION ACTION is filed for alleged violations of the lease or rental agreement or of the Arizona Residential Landlord and Tenant Act.

The rental property subject to the action must be located in the justice court precinct (venue).

You must give the tenant proper notice and you must wait until the business day after the expiration of the tenant's notice before filing the forcible detainer in the justice court. The justice court does not provide the initial notice to vacate forms, if you need more information on the type of notice you must deliver to the tenant you may refer to the Arizona Residential Landlord Tenant Act which is provided in booklet form by the Arizona Secretary of State or you may access this information online at www.azsos.gov. You may file a forcible detainer in the justice court if the total amount due does not exceed $10,000.00. If the amount exceeds $10,000.00 you must file in the Superior Court.

Please STOP...

- If the location of the rental property is not located in this justice court precinct.
- If the total amount due exceeds $10,000.00.
- If you did not serve the tenant with the proper notice.

Please PROCEED...

- If you are filing within the correct jurisdiction / venue.
- If you are claiming $10,000.00 or less in rent or damages.
- If you have properly served notice on the tenant and the time in the notice has completely expired.

FORMS Needed:

- Summons Residential Eviction Action (provided in this packet)
- Complaint – Eviction Action (provided in this packet)
- Copy of the Eviction Notice you served on the tenant
- Judgment form (when you come to court on your scheduled court date)

ADDITIONAL FORMS needed to serve on the defendant (at the time of service of the Summons and Complaint): Residential Eviction Information Sheet (provided in this packet), a copy of relevant portions of the lease and ledger (if applicable).

INSTRUCTIONS:

1. Obtain a copy of the ARIZONA RESIDENTIAL LANDLORD & TENANT ACT and ARIZONA RULES OF PROCEDURE FOR EVICTION ACTIONS and familiarize yourself with the contents.
2. Read the attached Residential Eviction Information Sheet AND Information for Landlords and Tenants.
3. Check the venue for your complaint on the court precinct map. You are responsible for filing your case in the correct court.
4. Complete the summons and complaint forms. Make 3 copies of the forms if you are filing against one person; make 4 copies if you are filing against two persons (such as a married couple), etc.
5. File the summons and complaint forms, together with a copy of the eviction notice served on the tenant, with the court clerk and pay the court filing fee.
6. Make arrangements with a licensed process server to serve the papers on the defendants. Process servers may be found in the Yellow Pages of the phone directory.
7. When you come to court on your scheduled court date, you must have your judgment form completed with the case caption (names of parties) typed or printed. Present the judgment form to the judge who will complete the ORDER portion and sign the judgment.

IT IS IMPORTANT THAT ALL PARTIES KEEP THE COURT APPRISED OF ANY CHANGE IN ADDRESS A NOTICE OF CHANGE OF ADDRESS form must be filed with the court when a party changes their address.

Maricopa County Justice Courts RESIDENTIAL EVICTION INFORMATION SHEET

Notice: A landlord must provide a tenant with written notice saying why the eviction process has started. The tenant should have received this notice before this lawsuit was filed.

Service: The tenant must be served with: the Complaint, Summons, this Residential Eviction Information Sheet, and a copy of relevant portion of lease and/or ledger (if applicable).

Rent cases: If this lawsuit has been filed for not paying rent, the tenant can stop it and continue living in the residence by paying all rent now due, late fees, attorney's fees and court costs. After a judgment has been granted, reinstatement of the lease is solely in the landlord's discretion. Inability to pay rent is not a legal defense and the judge cannot give more time to pay, even if the tenant is having financial problems.

Before Court: Eviction cases move through the court system very quickly. If the tenant disagrees with the landlord's allegations, the tenant is encouraged to file a written answer. The answer form available from the court allows the tenant to admit or deny the allegations and explain his or her position. If a tenant believes that the landlord owes him or her money, the tenant may under some circumstances file a counterclaim. The summons states that a trial will occur on the date listed, but due to the high volume of cases, a trial may not occur then. If the tenant fails to appear, and the landlord or his attorney is present, a judgment will probably be entered against the tenant. Tenants can represent themselves or arrange for lawyers to represent them. The court will not provide a lawyer.

A landlord, tenant, attorney, or witness will be permitted to participate at the initial hearing by telephone or video conference and should contact the court at least two hours before the hearing to obtain information about how to connect to the hearing.

At Court: At the time listed on the summons, the judge will start calling cases. If both parties are present, the judge will ask the tenant whether the complaint is true. If the tenant says no, he or she will need to briefly tell the judge why. If the reason appears to be a legal defense, the judge will need to hear testimony from both sides and make a decision after a trial. After talking to the landlord or its attorney, a tenant may wish to agree to what the landlord is requesting by signing a "stipulation". A stipulation is an agreement under which the parties resolve the dispute on the basis of what the agreement says. Only matters contained in the written agreement can be enforced. These agreements should be clear and understandable by both parties. Most stipulations include judgments against tenants. See below.

Continuances: Either party may ask that the court date be delayed. The court will agree only if there is a very good reason. A delay will be no more than three business days. There is no assurance a delay will be granted and parties should come to court prepared for trial and bring necessary witnesses and documents.

After a Judgment: If a landlord receives a judgment, it may apply for a writ of restitution to remove the residents. Writs of Restitution are served by constables, who will direct the residents to leave. A tenant may avoid the difficulties associated with a writ of restitution by vacating the property and returning the keys to the landlord. This ends his or her possession of the residence. If the tenant wants to continue to live in the residence after a judgment has been entered, the tenant will need to obtain the landlord's approval and sign a new lease. A tenant will have five (5) days to vacate the premises unless evicted for criminal activity, in which case the tenant has only twelve (12) to twenty four (24) hours to vacate. A judgment will probably appear on a tenant's credit report for several years. Parties wishing to appeal from a judgment have five days to do so after the judgment is entered and can obtain forms and information from the court filing counter. If a tenant wants to remain in the rental home during the appeal, the tenant must also pay a "supersedeas bond" to suspend the judgment while the case is being reviewed. If the tenant prevails the court will dismiss the case.

Sources of Additional Information: You can get copies of the Arizona Residential Landlord Tenant Act, the Arizona Mobile Home Parks Residential Landlord and Tenant Act and the Long Term Recreational Vehicle Rental Space Act from a library or from the Secretary of State's office or web page: www.azsos.gov, <https://www.azcourts.gov/eviction>, or <https://www.azcourthelp.org/>.
